Dear Church Family,

Thank you for your support through your prayer and your giving for our recent mission trip to Jimani, Dominican Republic. As a group we came back a changed people and we are excited about what the future holds in the Dominican Republic and Haiti. It was a great comfort knowing that so many of you were at home praying for us constantly. We ask that you would continue to pray for the missionaries that are serving full-time in Jimani. Below you will find their names and websites so that you may keep up with them and learn more about their great ministry.
