

Good Morning

Idols. They have been a problem for God's people since ancient Israel in the wilderness. There are many Old Testament stories of God's people being led astray to worship false gods such as Ashtoreth, El, and Baal. We may believe we are not as primitive as ancient peoples; that we are too enlightened to be ensnared by idols. Perhaps we fail to recognize that we have simply become so sophisticated with our idolatry that we fail to recognize it as such.

God has promised to bless us for thousands of generations if we remain faithful to him (EX 20:6). I know this world has set before you a buffet of temptations that challenge you to offer a "sacrifice" to something other than God. But be encouraged. He that is in you is greater than he who is in the world. My prayer today is that we would hear God's voice and that he would expose our idols so that we may walk in the full measure of God's blessings.
