

Good Morning

The words we speak reflect who we are as worshippers. Jesus said, from the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. James the Apostle was perplexed that we use our words to worship God and curse men...that from the same mouth come blessings and curses.

The 10 commandments direct us to worship in the way we speak. Specifically, we are not to take God's name in vain. Our first reaction to this command is "no cursing." But the third commandment is broader in scope than this. A vital aspect of worship is how we speak to God and about God. Jesus said it best when he gave us a model prayer instructing us to "hallow" God's name.

Today's sermon is entitled "Words of Worship". We will explore many ways we are to refrain from using God's name in a vain manner and how our worship is to hallow God's name with all the respect and awe he deserves.
