

Good Morning

Welcome to worship. Today is the Lord's Day. It is the day we set aside each week where the corporate worship of God is the top priority of the day. Truthfully, there is no other place I would rather be today, and every Sunday, than worshipping with the Body of Christ.

It is easy for worship to become routine and to lose its importance. It is also easy for us to get out of the routine of regular worship and prioritize other activities on the Lord's Day besides worship. But it is God's will that we worship him faithfully and consistently every week. Not because we are commanded to, but because we want to.

The title of my message today is "A Day of Worship." It is a message from the 4th commandment found in Exodus 20. My prayer for you today is that God would strengthen your commitment to his church like never before; and that Sunday worship would continue to be the highlight of your week.
