

Welcome to Church

Are you thankful to God for all he has provided for you? Most of us take for granted the comforts we enjoy. Not only do we have clean water, food, clothes, and a roof over our head. We have people that love us and care for us. God has also blessed us spiritually. He has given us the Holy Spirit and has saved us through the blood of Jesus.

One day, we will all be in eternity in a place called heaven. We will be fully blessed.

As we near the close of the 10 commandments series we will address the issue of materialism. There are two of the 10 commandments that address this topic: Do not steal and do not covet. God has done so much for us. How could we take from another when we have been given so much? Why would we covet material goods when God has blessed us in a magnificent spiritual way? Be thankful for all you have been given.

Praise God for his provision!

Pastor Scott
