

Welcome to Church

We live in an age of consumerism. Commercials, billboards, newspaper ads, email spam, social media burbs, etc, etc are teeming with enticing advertising meant to create in you a desire to crave a product being sold. Having the newest and best is in fashion...the newest car, clothes, computer, iPhone, etc. Things become "outdated" quicker than ever before. But when is enough, enough? Is it possible to arrive at a place of contentment?

Covetousness is rampant in our nation. In fact, our economy has become dependent upon people wanting more, more, more. As believers we easily become ensnared by the sin of coveting...constantly wanting and seeking more and more "things". I have an important question for you this morning: is God enough?
