

Welcome to Church

Be in prayer for our Children's ministry this morning. As you read this, 147 children and adults are making their way back from Camp Hillmont. I know that they have had a wonderful time and that God has touched the lives of our kids in a major way. As we saw last week through the youth camp testimonies, God is doing a work in the lives of the next generation of Trinity's leaders. May we launch them like arrows into this dark world to shine the light of Christ to the nations. Can you remember a time when you were younger and you were "on fire" for Jesus. Has that fire for him turned into a stagnant spiritual pool? This morning, I desire for you to be encouraged and re-invigorated in your walk with Jesus as we explore a familiar passage in Philippians. May the Lord Jesus Christ take us "Forward".
